Astrologer Ashutosh gives forecasts based on Moon Signs or Janma Rashis for the new year 2010.

Check out what 2010 has in store for you.

A Moon Sign is the sign in which the Moon was placed in your natal birth chart or the Kundli. In India, the Hindus give prime importance to the Moon Sign which is also called as Janma Rashi.

This Rashi is taken into consideration when giving a name to a new born child. It is also used to predict the aspects of life like marriage, business, wealth and happiness.

In Jyotish the Moon Sign is also one of the basic factors studied when match-making is done for marriage purposes.
