

Surya has left its swagrahi sign Leo and has entered Virgo (Kanya) today. As Saturn has already been in Kanya since last one year and will stay in it for 14 more months, Sun has formed a yuti with Saturn now. As per the Jyotish Panchanga, this yuti will exist for the full term of the one month stay of Sun in Virgo. Surya will leave Virgo for Libra on 17th October 2010. Also, this Surya-Shani combination in Virgo and Jupiter in Pisces will be in a 1-7 position from each other.

A Sun-Saturn yoga usually symbolises a release of stored energies, resources and finances. People can make wrong and hasty investments which can result in losses or other problems. For next one month, one must be very cautious before spending any big amounts of money. This precaution is advised more between 30th September 2010 to 17th October 2010 when Mercury will join Sun and Saturn in Virgo.

Stock markets are very likely to lose steam due to these planetary combination. The fall in stock markets will be more in the month of October. Those who trade daily in shares and make intra day profits must be extra careful during next one month. Some industries like Automotive and Telecommunications will gain from these transits but Information Technology and Petroleum industries are likely to incur some losses.

Governments will spend more on public welfare and the charitable organisations will get good grants to work for the benefit of the deprived. Humanitarian works will get a boost. The information media, both TV and print, will face some legal restrictions due to their irresponsible activities. There may be some strict regulations imposed on them by governments around the world.

Some financial scams of large scale will be revealed and people holding important portfolios will come under judicial scrutiny. The ruling government in India will face more problems and dissent from within the government will shake the very foundations of it. Terrorist activities will increase and the multiplying unrest in many parts of India will make the situation worse.

On the positive note, people will spend more on consumer products. Real estate prices will undergo a correction and the sale purchase of real estate will gain speed. Sale of vehicles will increase due to the discounts and prizes offered by the automobile companies. But, be careful when buying any vehicles. Do your homework properly and get quotations from more than one dealers.

The effect of these transits on the twelve Moon Signs and Ascendants will be as follows:

1. Aries - Mesh: Health problems to children, change in job, health problems to self including digestive and liver related disorders, loss of good relations with a friend, success in politics, increase in debt.
