Ashok Kaushal asks: Dear Sir, I want to know about my business prospects this year. I have started a business venture but some or the other problem is causing delays in it. I have recently worn a blue sapphire and have felt no side effects of the same on me. So, can I continue wearing this Neelam? Please guide me on this. My DOB is 17th May 1973, TOB is 11.30 AM and POB is Lucknow, India.

Astrologer Ashutosh: Mr Ashok! Your horoscope shows that you have good business acumen and you will be more comfortable and satisfied in your own business than in a regular job. It also shows a keen interest in astrology and I am sure that you have been consulting a number of astrologers just to find out what is good for you.
You were born under Cancer (Karka) ascendant and Scorpio (Vrishchik) moon sign. Saturn is not a yogakarak planet for you. Wearing its gemstone will give you some financial gains but the negative results will be so sudden and severe that all the gains will become negligible before them. So, you should remove this Neelam. And, If it is not giving you any bad side effects then it is possible that it is not a natural and untreated Neelam. A dead gemstone will give neither good nor bad results. So, in that way too you should not be wearing this gemstone.

You should wear a Sindoori Coral (Moonga) in a silver ring on the ring finger of right hand. Wear this gemstone after 10th April 2012. And, make sure that it is not the China-Taiwan variety of factory made coral which is being sold in bulk in markets today. It should be the authentic and natural coral.

You have not mentioned whether you are doing this business in a partnership or as a sole proprietor concern. A partnership will not be good for you in long run. So, change your business setup and take another look at your business strategies. If you are able to make the corrections this month then you will start reaping the benefits from April 2012 onwards. The hard work done in next three months will pave the path for the business growth in the next three years. This year 2012 will be a very good year for your business.

Some small but helpful and important remedies for you:

- Keep fasts on Saturdays during this year of 2012.
- Avoid wearing Grey and Yellow in your garments.

- Take a bowl of milk and put very little amount of black sesame seeds (Til) in it. Feed this milk and sesame seeds mix everyday to any animal for next ten months.
